The Tarnished Bronze Version: The Tarnished Bronze Edition is a special edition of the game, featuring a 4K-resolution display mode, in-game screen capture and remote play (Android and iOS only). This edition also includes the following features: • 4K-resolution high-definition graphics • Real-time global battle maps • Tactical player commands • Light and dark variations of the world map • New, original characters • More elemental attacks and enemies • New Overworld mode • An additional story arc ABOUT DARK REALMS: Dark Realms is a fantasy action RPG being developed by The S@M Group in collaboration with Disney Interactive. Its massively multiplayer online (MMO) title, Dark Realms Online (DRO), debuted as a demo in September 2016. The fantasy adventure RPG, Dark Realms, was released in Japan in June 2016. The game later launched in Thailand, Hong Kong, South Korea, Taiwan, and Indonesia in October 2016 and in Australia and Taiwan in December 2016. In the game, a grim, dark fantasy world called the Dark Realms had been cursed by the treachery of two sisters, Artyom and Hadraneth, and their younger brother, Merik. Tragic and disruptive events have occurred because of their actions, resulting in the death of millions of people. The situation is now in a state of civil war. A former Alchemax official named Calem, who had been obsessed with the two sisters all his life, decides to counter-curse the sisters at his own cost. Unbeknownst to him, he uses the enchantment of the Elden Ring. As the game progresses, players take on the role of one of the countless guards working under Calem, Artyom, Hadraneth, Merik and Calem himself, whose soul is trapped by the ring. The goal of the game is for players to save the Dark Realms from the cursed sisters and their friend, as well as save Calem's soul and defeat the monsters plaguing the world. ABOUT THE S@M GROUP The S@M Group, Inc., develops, publishes, and manages online game content in Japan and overseas. The company has developed and published the massively multiplayer online (MMO) game Dark Realms in 2016 and Dark Realms Online (DRO) in 2016. The company also developed the online fantasy action RPG, The Legend of Heroes: Trails of Cold Steel II in 2013.

"A long time ago, when the Legends of Lodoss War was still "in development", I was thinking about creating a new ARPG with the "more or less free-development time" after the end of the Lodoss War. There are many big parts of the game that are not yet implemented, as well as some by the third person view system that will be added in the next system update of the game. I believed that the game will be an excellent game that is worthy of the new Lodoss War" "I have thought a lot about what kind of game I want to make during the development of the game" "I want a game to be considered an ARPG" "I want the game to have the same concept as the traditional ARPG games such as Final Fantasy and Diablo" "I believe that the ARPG genre has begun to go to the limit and have become stale" "I decided to create a game that I wanted to play" "I want to create a game that I can not only play, but also be pleasantly surprised by the game's development" "Most games are planned to be completed within a certain period. My goal is to create a game that will be completed after a certain period of time" "I want to create a game that I think will be difficult to complete and that will have an interesting story when it is completed" "I want to create a game that I would have to force myself not to play" "I want to create a game that I can play for long hours without getting tired" "I want to create a game that has an innovative system or a unique feeling that will be in a new fantasy world" "I want to create a game that feels as if it does not exist" "I want to create a game that people are waiting for" "I am a game designer that tries to create games that are made by his dreams" WHAT I WANT TO DELIVER: A GAME THAT IS INCLUDED WITH A FORMAT THAT IS QUICK AND EASY TO USE I want to create a game that is not boring and is challenging even when I am a beginner. Attack To attack, the [S] button must be pressed. This will deal damage to the enemy based on the number in the top left of the screen. Damage will be dealt to the enemy no matter how many times the [S] button is pressed. However, since this is RPG, the damage will decrease. Your damage will increase when your health reaches zero. When you press and hold the [S] button, the enemy will be attacked with three different levels of attack power. When you press and hold the [S] button again to select the attack power, the attack power will return to that level. In the beginning, your attack power will be 0. If you can reach a level higher than 10, your attack power will increase by 1 point. Once you reach a level of 20, your attack power will increase by 2 points. When your attack power reaches a certain level, the corresponding attack power will be displayed in red and the number in the top left
