Atlas Walisongo, Berita: Agus Sunyoto.ADDIS ABABA (Reuters) - Ethiopia confirmed on Sunday a new cholera outbreak in eastern Oromia state and that 60 of the 125 patients had died, the government said, as relief operations looked set to get a push from rain expected to hit the area later in the week. An outbreak of the diarrheal disease cholera in Oromia in Ethiopia is seen in this picture from August 10, 2019. REUTERS/Tiksa Negeri The outbreak in the state of Oromia was confirmed after doctors saw an increase in the number of cholera cases in the previous weeks, the government said in a statement.
