* "You can play the game by yourself or with a friend. Its fast-paced RPG battle system ensures that it's a constant challenge and that it will keep you interested to the end. The story is a well-executed, interesting adventure that's fun for both the player and the audience." (* "It's a mix of a sort of survival game, RPG and dungeon crawler. The battles are really interesting, and it's all made with great style. Definitely worth a look." (* "Eluden Ring: Tarnished is great in that it makes you believe you're living in an RPG after you defeat the boss of a dungeon, since the fights are very competitive, it's really easy to come back and continue to play even if you're in a busy time." (* "The RPG part of the game seems more like an afterthought. It seems like a sequel of sorts to the original, since the game's name is literally "Tarnished" and everything that happens in the story and the battles is related to that. It's not a perfect game but it does a good job." (* "The game is a multidirectional game. The player can do a lot of things, depending on his skills. And his success will probably depend on the character that he will select. In the game, the player can: fight with monsters, fight with bosses and potentially other players, travel or just observe his environment. I think it's a game that can appeal to many different people because it offers a lot of different things for an interactive experience" (<http://bff6bb2d33>
