James Buddha Ashram is a place of peace, a place of spiritual growth and learning and a place of joy. In recent times I have been working on a project about meditation, and have been doing a lot of interviews and reflecting on what is essential in this life. The journey has also helped me to realise that I am here on this earth in Buddha Ashram as a being on a Spiritual Path, and that it is my duty to take care and look after this world, to be an example of wisdom. My intention is to follow Buddha's teachings in a practical and direct way, and when I say "follow" that is quite literal, I'm here and I study Buddha's teachings and trying to integrate them into my life as much as possible. I am also seeking to make a positive contribution to the world. In Buddha Ashram I have a chance to be of service to others. In Buddhism there is the concept of Four Noble Truths which speak about the reality of suffering and the way to end that suffering, they are: 1) Life is Suffering. 2) The Cause of Suffering is Desire. 3) The Path to End Suffering is the Noble Eightfold Path (Dharmic Path). 4) To be of Service is the Noble Purpose in Life.
